

Employee Handbook

Company: DT

Document Type: Employee Handbook

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Owner: Human Resources

Review Frequency: Annual

1. Introduction

1.1. Purpose of the Handbook

The DT Employee Handbook establishes the expectations, guidelines, and general policies for a professional and productive work environment. This document serves as the primary reference for general workplace rules.

1.2. Applicability

This policy applies to all full-time employees, part-time employees, and fixed-term contractors employed by DT across all office locations (Bangalore, Chennai, and Hyderabad).

1.3. General Employee Responsibilities

Employees are expected to act in the best interests of DT, protect company assets, maintain confidentiality, and foster a collaborative environment. Compliance with all policies outlined in this handbook and supplemental policy documents is mandatory.

2. Working Hours

2.1. Standard Working Hours

The standard workweek at DT consists of 40 hours. Standard working hours are from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM Indian Standard Time (IST), Monday through Friday, inclusive of a one-hour lunch break.

2.2. Core Collaboration Hours

To facilitate synchronous communication across hybrid and remote teams, DT enforces "Core Collaboration Hours" between 11:00 AM and 4:00 PM IST. Regardless of flexible schedules, all employees must be online, available on company chat platforms, and available for scheduling meetings during this window.

2.3. Flexible Working Guidelines

Employees may adjust their start and end times (e.g., 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM or 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM) provided they:

- Complete 40 hours per week.
- Are fully available during Core Collaboration Hours.
- Obtain explicit written approval from their Manager.

2.4. Attendance Expectations

Employees must notify their Manager and update their calendar status by 9:00 AM IST if they are going to be late or absent. Unplanned absences must be formalized via the HR Leave Management System within 24 hours of returning to work.

3. Code of Conduct

3.1. Professional Behavior

Employees must maintain a high standard of professionalism. Aggressive language, insubordination, and disruptive behavior are strictly prohibited and subject to disciplinary action.

3.2. Harassment and Discrimination

DT has a zero-tolerance policy for harassment or discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability, or age. Any incidents must be reported immediately to Human Resources or via the anonymous grievance portal.

3.3. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must not engage in outside employment, consulting, or business ventures that conflict with DT's business interests. Any potential conflict of interest (e.g., having a financial interest in a DT vendor) must be disclosed to HR within 7 days of the employee becoming aware of it.

4. Communication

4.1. Appropriate Use of Channels

- Email: Used for formal communication, approvals, client interactions, and policy announcements.
- Company Chat (e.g., Slack/Teams): Used for quick, informal collaboration, team updates, and daily operational questions.
- Meetings: Used for complex problem solving, brainstorming, and project reviews.

4.2. Expected Response Times

- Emails: Must be acknowledged or responded to within 24 business hours.
- Direct Messages (Chat): Must be responded to within 2 business hours during standard working hours.
- Urgent Requests: Must be marked "URGENT" and responded to as soon as safely possible.

5. Workplace Guidelines

5.1. Shared Facilities and Clean Desk

Employees working from DT offices (Bangalore, Chennai, Hyderabad) must adhere to a "Clean Desk" policy. At the end of each workday, all physical documents must be locked away, and whiteboards wiped clean to protect confidential information.

5.2. Meeting Rooms

Meeting rooms must be booked via the internal calendar system. If a booked room is no longer needed, the reservation must be canceled at least 30 minutes in advance. Rooms must be cleared of personal items and trash after use.

6. Performance & Development

6.1. Performance Reviews

DT conducts formal performance reviews bi-annually: a mid-year check-in in July and an annual performance review in January.

6.2. Goal Setting

Managers and employees must document Objectives and Key Results (OKRs) within the first 30 days of the calendar year or within 30 days of a new employee's joining date.

6.3. Learning and Development

Full-time employees receive an annual Learning & Development budget of ₹25,000 for courses, certifications, or conferences relevant to their role. Pre-approval from the reporting Manager is required before claiming this budget.

7. Employee Benefits

7.1. General Benefits Eligibility

All full-time employees are eligible for the DT Benefits Program starting from their date of joining.

7.2. Medical Insurance

DT provides a family floater health insurance policy with a coverage limit of ₹5,00,000. Employees may enroll their spouse and up to two children. Enrollment must be completed within 14 days of the employee's start date.

8. Separation

8.1. Notice Period

The standard notice period for voluntary resignation is 60 days for all full-time employees. During the probationary period (first 90 days of employment), the notice period is 15 days.

8.2. Exit Procedures

Resignations must be submitted in writing via email to the employee's Manager and HR. The employee must complete the IT offboarding checklist and an HR exit interview during their final week.

8.3. Return of Company Assets

All company assets, including laptops, monitors, ID cards, and peripherals, must be returned to the IT department on or before the last working day. Failure to return assets will result in the deduction of the asset's replacement value from the final full and final (FnF) settlement.
